DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference character “70” has been used twice in Fig. 1 to designate different parts. It appears that part “20” has been mislabeled.
2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the crossbar (claims 5 and 20) must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 10, 14-16 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gebka (5,421,113).

Gebka discloses a label holder for attachment to a scanner hook assembly, wherein the scanner hook assembly includes at least a scanner hook 14 having a proximal end and a distal end, mounting means 16 on the proximal end of the scanner hook for mounting the scanner hook assembly on a supporting surface with the scanner hook cantilevered forwardly from the supporting surface, and support means 18 on the distal end of the scanner hook for a label holder, the label holder comprising an upper clip portion 30 and a lower label-receiving portion 12, the clip portion 30 including attaching means for removably securing the label holder to the support means 18 of the scanner hook assembly in a substantially fixed, non-rotatable, relationship with respect to the support means 18, and a hinge element (Figs. 1 and 2) interconnecting the clip portion 30 to the label-receiving portion 12 of the label holder to permit the label-receiving portion to be moved between a first position in which it depends from the clip portion under the influence of gravity and a second position in which it extends at an angle with respect to the clip portion.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claims 11-13 and 26-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gebka (5,421,113) in view of Lowry et al. (6,568,112).

Gebka discloses the invention substantially as claimed, as set forth above. However, the label disclosed by Gebka does not have a transparent cover, as recited. Lowry teaches that it was known in the art to provide a label holder of the type recited. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to replace the label holder disclosed by Gebka with one of the type taught by Lowry, in order to allow multiple labels to be accommodated in the same holder.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 2-9 and 17-24 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

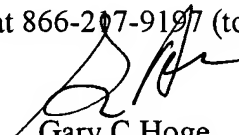

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
